

Call of Duty Elite: TheLegendofKarl Trailer

Meet Karl. He's a self-declared legend.

Comedian TJ Miller narrates this introductory video for Call of Duty: Elite, the latest work from DOJO for Activision. Voicing a gamer called theLEGENDofKARL, he takes the viewer on a tour of the game, peppering his commentary with a few mortars and a lot of humor.

With Elite, Activision aims to unite its community of Call of Duty players. Multiple players will be able to connect and compete with each other using social networks like Facebook. They can also improve their skills using an online dynamic strategy guide that acts like a personal coach, tracking their statistics and performances down to the most minute details. Fans can experience the Beta for Elite this summer on Call of Duty: Black Ops before it launches in November with the worldwide release of Call of Duty: Modern Warfare 3.
